

SOVEREIGN OUT.

General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor Dropped,

Together With Foreman McGuire and Two Executive Committeemen.

Mr. Henry A. Hicks, of New York City, Chosen to Fill Mr. Sovereign's Place—

I. D. Chamberlain, of Pueblo, Col., Elected General Worthy Foreman.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 13.—James R. Sovereign, who has been general master workman of the Knights of Labor for the past four years or more and who, before and during that time has been one of the ablest champions of the order and its doctrines, was, Friday afternoon, relieved of his office by the general assembly which has been in session in this city since Monday last. Under ordinary conditions Mr. Sovereign's term of office would not expire until the next meeting. This, however, it is said, makes no difference with the order whose general officers during a meeting are always in the hands of assembly and can be chosen and deposed at the will of the majority. Along with Mr. Sovereign there were three other officers retired because of their special election, viz: T. B. McGuire, general worthy foreman, of Amsterdam, N. Y., and Daniel Brown, of Montana, and H. B. Martin, of Minnesota, members of the executive committee.

Henry A. Hicks, of New York City, District 233, New York City, was chosen to fill Mr. Sovereign's place and I. D. Chamberlain, of Pueblo, Col., was selected as general worthy foreman, Sarsfield Fitzpatrick, of Montreal, and Henry Bostock, of Assembly 300, Glass Workers, were chosen as the two members of the executive board, the third member being Andrew D. Best.

This very decided change in the corps of general officers of the Knights of Labor will cause considerable astonishment in labor circles throughout the country. Save to those who were on the "inside" so to speak for the past three months there was absolutely nothing of this known. It is said, though the change was sudden and totally unlooked for, it was done with the amicable consent of all. In some quarters it is hinted that it had been prearranged before the delegates gathered in this city for the general assembly. On good authority it is learned that it was with Mr. Sovereign's most hearty approval that he steps down and out. It is likewise with the appreciation, and in fact love, of his brethren of the order that this is done. The same holds good with the other officers who were relieved. Mr. Sovereign stated Friday night that he wished retirement. He wanted rest from the labor which the office entailed upon him.

Wiley Lewis was convicted and sent to the penitentiary for life mainly upon the testimony of Albert Voires, who swore at the trial that he saw Lewis kill Cochran. Voires made a sworn statement Thursday that he lied outright in his testimony, and that he never in his life knew Cochran, and knew nothing of his murder.

Voires refused to eat any dinner, except a few pickles, but when the time came to go to the scaffold he had braced up, and declared he had obtained pardon for all his crimes and was ready to go. At the scaffold Voires declared his innocence, but said he would die like a man, and his nerve was almost marvelous. At 2:30 Sheriff McVey sprung the trap, resulting in the breaking of Voires' neck, causing instantaneous death.
